

Annual Report 2019 - Music at St. Paul's From Dr. Paul Cienniwa

The 2019-2020 concert season, our 32nd season, is marked by several collaborations as we continue to celebrate the great chamber music tradition of Music at St. Paul's. Most notably, the Delray String Quartet was named Artist-in-Residence. Through this partnership, the DSQ performs in three Sunday afternoon concerts during our regular series (September 22, 2019; March 29, 2020; May 31, 2020). In addition, the Delray String Quartet performs two concerts "in the round" on Friday nights (January 24, 2020; February 28, 2020). The DSQinTheRound programs feature the quartet in the center of St. Paul's Parish Hall, with audience seating on all sides.

We continued our collaboration with Lynn University Conservatory of Music, presenting, for the second year, finalist ensembles from their annual Chamber Music Competition (Sunday, January 19, 2020). For years, St. Paul's has been hosting monthly meetings of the Palm Beach Chapter of the American Recorder Society, but this season we partner with them to present recorder player Anne Timberlake with lutenist Adam Cockerham (Sunday, February 9, 2020). This season, we also reached out to the Delray Art League, and they have been presenting their works at our concerts.
